

COMPANY PROFILE

Studio HR Soundroom

End-to-end audio production.

A full-service audio production company taking stories from script to mastered, quality-controlled delivery — for storytelling platforms, publishers, podcast networks, media companies, and creators.

Full-service audio production.

Studio HR Soundroom is a full-service audio production company based in Indore, India, specializing in end-to-end audio production for storytelling platforms, production houses, podcast networks, audiobook publishers, brands, and independent creators. We combine creative direction, sound engineering, sound design, music production, mixing, mastering, quality control, and final delivery under one roof — to create engaging, immersive, and scalable audio experiences.

What we produce

- Audio Story Production

Fully produced, immersive audio stories from script to delivery.

- Audiobook Production

Narration, editing, and chapter delivery at publisher scale.

- Podcast Production & Post

End-to-end episode production and post for networks and brands.

- Dialogue Editing & Cleanup

De-noise, de-breath, and seamless natural comps.

- Sound Design & Foley

Custom effects, ambience, and textures that build the world.

- Background Score & Music

Original composition, themes, and beds; stems delivery.

- Mixing & Mastering

Studio-grade balance and platform-spec loudness.

- Quality Control & Delivery

A dedicated QC pass and spec-perfect final files.

- Audio Restoration & Enhancement

Noise reduction, spectral repair, and clarity work.

A separate quality-control stage before anything ships.

03 Multi-project handling

Parallel productions managed without dropping a beat.

04 Fast turnaround times

Reliable timelines that keep your release calendar on track.

05 Long-form episodic expertise

Built for series, seasons, and continuous catalogues.

Why Studio HR Soundroom

01 Storytelling-first approach

Creative direction that serves the narrative, not just the waveform.

02 Consistent, studio-grade quality

A house sound and QC standard that holds across every file.

03 Scalable capacity

Boutique projects and high-volume slates, handled the same way.

04 Reliable turnaround & support

Dependable timelines and a responsive production partner.

05 Flexible engagement models

Built for one-off projects and ongoing, high-volume work.
